

Math 133: Introduction to Fourier Analysis

- Math 133: General Course Outline and Information

Math 133 is the introduction to Fourier series, the Fourier transform in one and several variables, finite Fourier transform, applications, in particular to solving differential equations. Fourier inversion formula, Plancherel's theorem, convergence of Fourier series, convolution.